

Elbows Up, Canada! – Toronto

Location: Nathan Phillips Square, Toronto

Date: Saturday, March 22, 2025

Time: 2:00 PM - 3:30 PM

About the Event

After an incredible turnout in Ottawa, Elbows Up, Canada! is coming to Toronto! This grassroots movement is about standing together as Canadians—proud, strong, and unwavering. We're gathering to celebrate unity, resilience, and the values that make Canada special.

Join us at Nathan Phillips Square for an afternoon of inspiring speakers, live music, and community engagement. This is a peaceful, non-partisan, and family-friendly event—a space where people from all backgrounds can come together, connect, and make their voices heard.

What to Expect

- ✓ Live Music – Energizing performances by Canadian artists.
- ✓ Inspiring Speakers – Thought leaders, entertainers, and community voices sharing their perspectives.
- ✓ A Positive & Uplifting Atmosphere – Focused on unity, resilience, and shared Canadian values.
- ✓ Community Connection – Engage in conversations, meet new people, and be part of a growing movement.

Daily Announcements

We'll be announcing new speakers and performers every day, so stay tuned for updates!

Why This Matters

In a time of uncertainty, coming together matters more than ever. Elbows Up, Canada! is about protecting what we value—our democracy, communities, and shared future.

Come be part of something bigger. Let's stand together. Let's raise our elbows and stand strong for Canada. 🇨🇦
